Janet Pernell

2005 Milken Educator

What others are saying.....

“Innovative, imaginative, child-centered, and stimulating are the power words we would use to describe Janet Pernell. More importantly, these are the words her students use in describing their beloved teacher.”

*- Terry Thompson, Principal
Southport High School*

“Janet sets very high expectations for all her students and accepts no excuses. Rather, she helps students find ways to succeed.”

*- Kathleen Carter, Director of Secondary Education
Metropolitan School District of Perry Township*

“The energy that she puts into every one of her students, the demands that she places on each one, and the life lessons that she teaches all make her an exceptional educator.”

*- Jim O'Brien, Math Department Chair
Southport High School*
